0:14	early 90s	Kingston	In the early 90s they found out that they had lost the Church's Charitable status with CRA. Peter reinstated the charitable status of the community. At that time the NDP won the government of Ontario. Mr Wilson helped to solve the issue. Peter thought that the reason for this issue was that some members of the community might not have been knowledgeable about how to do this.
1:05			However, it had nothing to do with that. There were many other organizations who suffered from the same issue and Peter helped to fix this issue with the CRA.
1:49			They had some rough times with a lack of funds to finish the hall. They finally made it with the help of the community, and paid all the costs and bills and left the community debt-free.
2:24			He is proud to be a member of the community. His proudest accomplishment is that he didn't go in and fight with anyone while he was president. It's hard not to, he jokes. But he realizes everybody tries their best. He loves Kingston. "Greeks always want to go back to the motherland, but this will always be our home."
3:10			Peter is grateful for this project. He has many pictures to provide for the project. There is a lot of history in this town.
